

Tourism is an Economic Engine in Sweetwater County

In 2019, Sweetwater County welcomed 609,000 overnight visitors. These visitors spent $160.1 million in our community, generating $8.5 million in travel-related taxes, and supporting 1,460 jobs. If not for the taxes generated by the travel and tourism industry, the average household in Sweetwater County would pay $502 more in taxes per year for existing government services.

Frontline employees and residents that interact with visitors and potential residents help support and ensure the success of the local economy as a whole. Visitors and potential residents who have a positive experience in the area are more likely to stay longer, return for another trip, and tell family and friends about the area.

With the CTA program, we hope to give frontline employees the tools and resources they need to be ambassadors for the great community in which we live and work.

Everyone benefits - the visitors, the industry, the local economy, and most importantly, the frontline worker.

Why Choose the Sweetwater County Certified Tourism Ambassador Program?

FOR EMPLOYERS

The Sweetwater County Certified Tourism Ambassador program teaches hospitality professionals and volunteers best practices and ensures they understand their role in boosting tourism in the area. The program helps staff increase their knowledge of the county and enhances their confidence in providing answers and resources to a variety of visitor questions. The CTA Program provides an opportunity for certified employees and volunteers to meet and collaborate with their peers, share experiences, learn from one another, and work to create a positive visitor experience.

FOR EMPLOYEES & VOLUNTEERS

What separates the Sweetwater County Certified Tourism Ambassador Program from other training programs is that it's a certification, not just training.
