Happening this week...

FEBRUARY 1 – 15, 2023

JANUARY 6 – FEBRUARY 11

Mae Orm: Kaleidoscapes - 400 C St.

Pinedale, WY, artist Mae Orm is exhibiting a series of paintings titled Kaleidoscapes at the Community Fine Arts Center. Inspired by the land she lives in, the color and movement of the land and light are her subjects. She has expanded her techniques to be more textural and sculptural.

A closing reception is scheduled on February 11th from 1 to 3 pm.

JANUARY 9 – FEBRUARY 28

Snowman Stroll - throughout Downtown Rock Springs

The Snowman Stroll is a new event created by the Rock Springs Main Street/URA in partnership with the Community Fine Arts Center. The project grew out of a discussion on ways we could embrace winter more in our community. Stroll around Downtown Rock Springs to enjoy each of the life-sized snowmen, created by Wyoming artists! Go on a Snowman Scavenger Hunt. Turn in a scavenger hunt sheet to the Rock Springs Library after you find all the Snowmen to earn a small prize, and be entered to win a snowman decorating kit! Vote for your favorite snowman while you're here and get a craft kit to take home! Learn more at downtownrs.com

JANUARY 26 – FEBRUARY 5

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 2

"Who She Is" - 618 Broadway St. - 6:30pm - 9pm

Who She Is tells the story of four individual women caught in the Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women (MMIW) epidemic. By bringing these missing women to life on screen, through animation and first-person storytelling, the documentary aims to humanize the people behind the statistics. Audiences will learn each woman's loves and losses and will come to know their story. Through these women, the documentary hopes to shine a light on the wider MMIW epidemic and gendered violence in Wyoming and beyond. After the film screening join Caldera Productions filmmakers Jordan Dresser and Sophie Barksdale for a discussion about the film, MMIW/P in Wyoming, and importance of empowering Indigenous voices in solutions to combat this epidemic.
